

Geriatric Dental Group of South Texas San Antonio, Texas

Program Overview

The Geriatric Dental Group of South Texas, established in 2006, is located in San Antonio, Texas. Using portable equipment, the program's dentists and dental hygienists treat older adults and individuals with complex medical conditions in nursing homes. The dental team provides bedside services in nursing homes as well as more complex procedures in a wheelchair-accessible dental office, which is also important for certain individuals, such as those with swallowing disorders. The program's services include emergency care, basic care, and comprehensive care.
