

Health Care for the Homeless Baltimore, Maryland

Program Overview

Health Care for the Homeless, established in 1985, is a community-based clinic with multiple locations throughout Maryland that provide comprehensive dental, medical, and behavioral health services to homeless individuals. The program's dental services include screenings, fluoride treatments, sealants, fillings, extractions, dentures, crowns, bridges, oral surgery, root canals, referrals, and patient and caregiver education. The clinic accepts children and adults and was the first comprehensive dental program in Maryland to target homeless populations.
