

Metrolina Dental Hygiene Society Florence Crittenton Oral Health Education Project Charlotte, North Carolina

Program Overview

The Metrolina Dental Hygiene Society (MDHS) Florence Crittenton Oral Health Education Project, established in 2005, targets pregnant women in Charlotte, North Carolina. Dental hygienists from MDHS teach two classes on prenatal and pediatric oral health. Classes are held at Florence Crittenton Services, a nonprofit organization which offers a variety of services to at-risk or pregnant adolescents and women and their families. Participants also receive dental care products for children and adults.
