

Presbyterian Medical Services Multiple locations throughout New Mexico

Program Overview

Presbyterian Medical Services, established in 1901, is located in Santa Fe, New Mexico and has approximately 100 programs throughout the state. Services include screenings, fluoride treatments, sealants, fillings, extractions, scaling, oral surgery, crowns, bridges, dentures, root canals, and patient and caregiver education. Clinic sites are usually co-located with a primary care health center that provides comprehensive health care to the client. The clinic treats everyone, including low-income populations and individuals without insurance, and provides assistance with enrollment in either Medicaid or the Health Insurance Marketplace.
